

Pet's Name: Cole

King or Queen? King

Most Regal Habit

Being a cutie-pa-tootie.

Least Regal Habit

Eating mom's ear plugs on her nightstand. Or just eating anything that isn't supposed to be edible. I just like to test the laws of science.

Royal Decree

To open a dog park for disabled dogs like me. My mom and dad adopted me from the Wenatchee Valley Humane Society last year. The staff there were so nice to me. They didn't know my back story, but they quickly learned that I was blind and were so patient and kind. I would like for other disadvantaged dogs that come from there to have a safe place to play. I would make sure the fence is bubble wrapped so we could run around and chase balls and not have to be slow or worry about getting hurt.
