King or Queen? Queen

Most Regal Habit

Maya is a service dog. She spends all day every day keeping her Servant (her mom) safe and happy. She's a working lady who's not afraid to put in the hours!

Least Regal Habit

Despite all of my incredible training, I'm still not sure about the fridge. I make sure to steer my mom away from them, just in case one day they decide to rise up and mutiny against humanity.

Royal Decree

From this day forward, all persons under this decree shall henceforth and forever carry with them sliced bologna. It shall be awarded to me upon sight, and in return you shall receive my undying love and affection.
