

Pet's Name Patrick

King or Queen? King

Most Regal Habit

Patrick is a very handsome and gentle giant. He is a Silver Labrador that loves to join his mom in the orchard chasing squirrels and playing in the sprinklers. When he is not in the orchard, he enjoys running or hiking with his mom so he can meet new people and dogs. At home, Patrick likes to play with his younger brothers Bartlett, the Yellow Labrador and Theodore, the kitten.

Least Regal Habit

Patrick's least regal habit is drooling on the center console of his mom's truck when he rides shotgun, waiting, in anticipation of the whipped cream pup-cup he is about to receive from Starbucks.

Royal Decree

Patrick's Royal Decree is for everyone to give as much love he gives and receives to other animals. He also loves treats and pats on the head... those are always welcome.

Thank you,

Patrick aka Patty Cake
